HONORED RETIREES 2018

Karen Ellis, assistant director of conferences and special events, began her 34-year career in Continuing Education. Karen experienced an unexpected—but ultimately very rewarding—job change in 2009 when she was transferred to the new Office of Conferences and Special Events within Student Activities. She is proud of her role in developing processes that have brought more external groups to campus and of building the campus team that supports and welcomes these visitors: groups consistently comment on the beautiful campus, great facilities, and friendly and helpful staff. Karen will miss her Morris life, the many activities on campus, friends among faculty and staff, and, of course, bright and forward-thinking students. She is delighted to now have time to travel on a whim, garden, read, and spend lots of time with her two granddaughters.

Delores Rathke, senior food service worker, has served the students of Morris for 40 years. She was honored for her efforts with a Teamster recognition award. In retirement, Delores will miss “all the hugs from students and student workers and coworkers.” She writes, “I truly enjoyed my career of being a mom, maybe a grandma, to many students.” Delores looks forward to spending more time with her family in the coming days.
